"Utrecht University is replacing the laminated paper proof of enrolment with a digital student card," according to Marieke de Bakker, Head of Student Counselling at Utrecht University.

This makes Utrecht University the first university in the Netherlands to introduce a digital student card that also serves as proof of enrolment. When requested, students can now show their student card in the MyUU app instead of a laminated proof of enrolment.

Universiteit Utrecht
Marieke de Bakker
Head of Student Counselling