EBS University at a Glance

EBS Universität originated from the oldest and most networked private business school in Germany and has campuses located in both Wiesbaden as well as Oestrich-Winkel.

The two faculties (business and law) have

- around 2,000 students, doctoral candidates and exchange students
- 23% international students
- 44 core faculty staff members (senior and junior professors, lecturers and postdoctoral fellows) as well as approximately 30 adjunct and honorary professors from all over the world
- eleven business languages taught by more than 30 native speakers
- more than 230 partner universities across all continents
- over 200 corporate partners. Many of which are DAX companies and law firms
- more than 10,000 alumni. 3,800 of these are organised in the EBS Alumni Network, in over 30 countries

EBS Law School

EBS Law School is one of the top ranked law faculties in Germany with notable professors and teaching staff. We strive to serve the banking sector, industry organizations, law firms, public authorities and government ministries who are in urgent need of legal professionals with a sound business education. At the same time, the increasing complexity of global markets presents a growing challenge for future lawyers and legal professionals. Through the unique combination of legal and business studies the curriculum at EBS Law School fuses to meet these challenging requirements.

We are a law school that

- enables our law students to graduate with 3 degrees in less than 5 years.
- empowers our students to graduate with outstanding results in the German State Examination.
- offers a unique personal atmosphere with small teaching groups
- considers personal development to be as important as your studies.

Program Information

EBS Law School offers its EBS Law Term once a year during the fall semester. It is exclusively designed for our international students and focusses on a current topic of international business law.

- Class format: lectures and seminars
- Course load per semester: minimum 21 ECTS, maximum 33 ECTS
- Curriculum: please see <https://www.ebs.edu/en/ebs-law-term>
- Language of instruction: English
- Certificate: Students are awarded the EBS Law Term Certificate of Participation (including transcript) upon successful completion of the program.
- Study trips: EBS offers optional study trips to significant institutions related to the focus of the EBS Law Term; for example, to the European Court of Justice in Luxembourg or the European Parliament in Strasbourg.
- International law firms: As a university with excellent corporate partners we usually offer a workshop in an international law firm as part of the EBS Law Term.
