

Career Orientation

Potential steps for organising your career orientation

Reflect
Discover your motivations, talents and interests.

Explore
Learn about your future opportunities.

Connect
Make contact with the professional field.

Get Skilled
Develop your professional skills.

TIP
Your student association organises lectures, workshops and events dealing with the job market, networking, choosing a Master's and personal development.

Learn what studying at the university entails, and which skills you need.

Study-Related Support
Are you having problems with or related to your studies? Do you need advice or counselling for personal problems? There are a number of counsellors within your study programme who can give educational guidance.

Talk to your tutor & academic advisor about elective courses, optional course credits and other possibilities.

Do online tests to get to know yourself better (personality/competencies/values).

Learn how to think, act, communicate and analyse at an academic level.

Attend informational sessions hosted by academic advisors to help you make choices during your studies.

Attend alumni meetings and hear what alumni have done after their studies.

Develop your soft skills, become a student consultant
Would you like to have an impact on society? Would you like to gain real-world experience?
Enactus
Solve
De kleine consultant

Use the alumni tool on LinkedIn to see where other alumni work.

Discover your talents and develop your (professional) skills via volunteer work, side jobs or membership in a board or committee.

Find out which Master's programme is right for you via open days or talking with your tutor.

Attend exchange courses abroad.

Watch Career Services' handy instructional videos on every aspect of the job market.

Train your professional skills, such as networking and applying for jobs.

Meet employers and alumni via events.

Practice applying for jobs and have a Career Officer proofread your CV and application letter.

Considering enrolling in a Master's programme? Then have a Career Officer proofread your CV and application letter in advance.

Consider whether to find a job after graduation, or to continue with a Master's.
