Selection Guide for Exchange Students – Master courses

Utrecht University School of Law

This Selection Guide for Master courses informs you on the specific requirements for taking Master level courses at Utrecht University School of Law during your Exchange.

What are the requirements for Master (/graduate) courses?

Master level courses are selective and have very limited spots available. To be considered for Master-level courses, you should at least meet the following requirements:

- You must have sufficient background knowledge in the subject area:
  Generally, this means that you must be enrolled in a Master's degree in the same (or very similar) field of study at your home university. We will also take into consideration the courses you took during your Bachelor's degree.
- You must have completed the first semester of your Master's degree at your home university before coming to Utrecht.

Furthermore:

- In cases of oversubscription, we will prioritize degree-seeking students.
- Applications that are not complete by the application deadline cannot be considered.

Which courses can I take as a Master (/graduate) student?

- Master(/graduate) students can choose courses on Bachelor and Master level.
  - Master level courses: admission is more restrictive. In general, you can only choose courses that are in the same or very similar field of studies.
  - Bachelor level courses: please make sure to check this thoroughly with your home university as they must approve this as well.

For the general information on enrolment and choosing your courses, you can follow the same steps as mentioned in the Course Selection Guide for Bachelor level courses.
