Appendix 3 (Article 3.6) – Optional course package

As part of their optional course profile (60 EC), students must in any case complete a package of courses totalling 30 EC. The course package options for students in the Media and Culture programme are listed below.

Media and Culture students can choose from the following course packages:

- A minor at the UU
- Courses completed at an institution abroad
- A second specialisation of the BA Media and Culture (Dutch only)⁵

In exceptional cases, students may choose a combination of courses not listed here to meet this requirement, however this requires advance approval from the Board of Examiners.

⁵ Students who have taken 'Comparative Media Studies' as their first or second specialisation will end up with a 7,5 EC overlap. Students can freely choose another course in its place.
